

The Newport Mercury.

JOHN P. SAWYER, Editor and Proprietor.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1882.

The Republicans have elected two Congressmen in West Virginia.

Snow has arrived in the north-western territories, and winter has set in in Russia, where the mercury has already tumbled to 10°.

Hon. Leopold Morse, Massachusetts lone Democratic congressman, consents to be a candidate in the fifth district, with a good chance of getting elected.

The annual report of the Second Assistant Postmaster will very pleasingly show an increase in the mileage of the star route service and a decrease in the expense.

Congressman Jay Hubbell predicts that the Republicans will control the next House of Representatives. His confidence is not shared by many members of his party, while the Democrats are very sanguine of success, and have already apportioned out the office.

Rhode Island's Congressmen.

The Republican Congressional convention on Thursday, with almost unparalleled unanimity and heartiness, nominated for re-election the present Representatives, and by so doing present them to the citizens of the State as tried and trustworthy servants of the people. The State has had two watchful, conscientious and patriotic representatives, who have devoted themselves with painstaking fidelity to the interests of the district, the State and nation as well as to the party of which they are honored members. Hon. Henry J. Spooner of Providence, the Representative from the First District, has served but one session in Congress, but has proved himself a worthy representative, to whom the interests of the district are safely entrusted. The citizens of the district will do well to cast a handsome vote for Col. Spooner Nov. 7, not that he will need the vote, but as an expression of approval and confidence. It will be a graceful act for the electors of this county to give him a hearty endorsement at the polls, and we look to see a large Republican vote polled in Newport county.

The Second District is also to be congratulated in the possession of so worthy and able a representative as the Hon. Jonathan Chase of Lincoln. Mr. Chase, in an admirable address, before the delegates in convention, accepted the nomination, and reviewed the work of Congress and the present needs of the country. The following remarks, from so careful, upright and conservative a citizen as Mr. Chase, is worthy of great weight: "I declare without fear of successful criticism that no long session since reconstruction times has accomplished more, better or more important work." After mentioning the appropriation bill, the Geneva award bill, the anti-polygamy act, the adoption of the Danbrian system of the measurement of vessels, the refunding of the free and six bonds, the bill to extend bank charters, the unsealing of dishonestly elected Representatives, the tariff commission bill, pension cases, and the river and harbor bill, Mr. Chase came out squarely in defense of this bill, and declared that it was better to pass a bill with 5 per cent of improper appropriations than no bill at all. He showed that the amount expended was not large, in comparison with the sum given by other countries for similar purposes. His remarks concerning the civil service were pertinent and sagacious. He said: "There is a wide demand for a law to regulate the appointment and tenure of civil officers. As a citizen, I see the need; as a member of the House, I should welcome as a boon any proper provision which will relieve members from the irksome care and responsibility of recommending appointments." But, he continues, "our civil service, whatever its imperfections, is the best in the world. The remedy to be sought is in the method of appointment; to rid ourselves of the evils of patronage. With that I am in full sympathy, and shall heartily support any wise measure to promote these ends." This is a position that can not fail to commend itself to thoughtful citizens. Mr. Chase further said:

The people of this country, in my judgment, will never consent to a life tenure in the civil service, and they ought not to. Fixity of tenure tends to laxity of service and the inevitable result of a life tenure would be an aristocracy of office holders and a large and unendurable civil pension list. The term should be fixed to expire in the middle of the President's term and renewals made only for cause, but no man has ever acquired a right to the possession of any office by the gift of the people. The provision that appointments should be made only to the lowest grade and all positions above filled only by promotion, is absurd. It is at war with all experience in the management of practical affairs. The English system is not adapted to our institutions or to the spirit of our people. I am opposed to all measures of officeholders. The people should pay their own necessary campaign expenses.

Mr. Chase concluded with an able statement concerning the alleged extravagance of the annual appropriations. He showed that the expenses of the country were, per citizen, 12 per cent, less than during Buchanan's administration, which has never been charged as extravagant. And, moreover, the present times call for expenditure in lines that were not dreamed of in the latter days. Truly Congress has been painted darker than it deserves.

A Big Lighting Scheme.

The light-house board has decided to light Hell Gate by electric light, and Hallett's Point has been chosen as the best available site. A tower, 250 feet high, will be constructed of iron, and will contain lights of 20,000 candle-power, which will be displayed from sun-down to sunrise. The machinery in the tower will be duplicated so that in case of accident, there need be no interruption in the supply of light. It will be a novel sight when this dangerous passage-way is brilliantly illuminated by the electric spark, and could the old Dutch navigators sail their slow vessels through the Gate as of old, their wonder and amazement would be beyond expression. Great is the progress of the times, and its wonderful achievements seem boundless.

One of the local industries of Southern California is the traffic in tarantulas and their nests. So great has been the demand for them on the part of relic-hunters and ornithologists that a large number of persons are engaged in collecting them. The tarantula, when caught, is injected with a preparation of arsenic, which serves to counteract its poison and preserve it from decay. Leo Fleischman of Los Angeles, is at the head of this business, and is said to be filling orders from all parts of the world.

The first annual Convention of the National Liquor Dealers and Manufacturers Protective Association of the United States met in Milwaukee Wednesday. Congressman Doster delivered the address of welcome, in which he referred to the efforts of the temperance people and counseled a closer organization to resist them. Only three States in the Union are unrepresented.

General Butler opened his campaign for Governor of Massachusetts at Boston on Monday evening with two characteristic speeches addressed to large and enthusiastic audiences. He has awakened the Republicans to the necessity of waging an active campaign if he is to be kept out of the gubernatorial chair.

Dr. Hayden of England, who some years ago advocated "basket burial," that is, the substitution of wicker instead of close wooden or metallic cases for coffins is soon to visit this country, and it is thought that perhaps he may agitate that subject here. It is a cheaper mode of burial, but London did not appreciate it.

The managing editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, John A. Cockrell, shot and killed Col. A. W. Slayback, a prominent lawyer and politician. The quarrel arose from a newspaper article published by Cockrell reflecting on Slayback, and the editor claims that he did the shooting in self-defense.

The great apostle of aestheticism, Oscar Wilde, was arrested at Monckton, New Brunswick, the other evening, by the Young Men's Christian Association, for breach of contract to lecture under the auspices of the association. Wilde furnished bonds and will fight the case.

George C. Miln, the well known ex-Unionist divine of Chicago, made his debut on the theatrical stage in that city, on Monday evening, and as "Hamlet" achieved decided success. The next evening he impersonated "Iago" and made a dismal failure.

The people have won a great victory in the reversal by the New York court of appeals of the judgment of the lower court in the case of Story vs. the New York Elevated Railroad. It seems probable that the elevated roads are not all powerful.

They are still voting for a United States Senator in Oregon. On the last ballot Mitchell received 33 votes, Shattuck 30 and the others scattering. As the day of the Legislature stopped yesterday, an election is looked for soon.

Colonel Ingersoll, counsel for the star route contractors, has filed numerous affidavits charging the department of justice with furnishing money for the corruption of jurors in the recent trial.

The Helena, Arkansas, Independent has an article claiming to show that Arabi Pasha is an Irishman who lived in Montana in early days, being an Alder-Gulch miner in 1833.

An error in the law for the re-apportionment of Tennessee will, it is reported from Washington, prevent any legal election of Representatives in the next Congress, in that State.

Judge Folger declines to be interviewed on political questions, but says he would not say one word whether he would resign his position as secretary of the treasury or not.

The Democrats of the Seventh Massachusetts Congressional district have nominated Hon. Chas. P. Thompson for Congress.

Mr. Franklin Edson, the Democratic candidate for Mayor of New York, is descended on his mother's side from Roger Williams.

Sanitary Reform.

The Committee on Sanitary Measures of the Lime Kiln Club reported that they were ready to send off their quarterly report to the National Board of Health, as follows:

Q. "What epidemics since last report?"

A. "None."

Q. "Discoveries for the benefit of sanitary science?"

A. "None."

Q. "Have you any suggestion?"

A. "Only one. We believe that broom-handles should be made with an elbow to them, so that a woman can punch a dog out from under the bed without having to get down on her knees."

Q. "Any improvements in ventilation?"

A. "Only in cases where owners of buildings have taken away the doors and windows to induce non-paying tenants to move out."—Detroit Free Press.

Political Courtships.

Mr. Roscoe Conkling, of New York, who was once a Senator, is said to regard the following titles and accompanying names as respectively synonymous:

The Man-Milliner—George William Curtis.

That Man from Fremont—Ex-President Hayes.

That Man from Mentor—President Garfield.

The Lizard on the Hill—Gov. Cornell.

The Prize Ox in the White House—President Arthur.

That Ancient Mutton Chop—Secretary Folger.

It is suggested that he might add:

That Strutting Turkey Cock—Roscoe Conkling.

Home from the Fair.

"Did you have anything on exhibition at the fair this year?" asked the farmer's city friend. "Yes, something," he slowly answered. "Did you get any premiums?" "No, not yet," faintly replied the stranger. "Why, what's the trouble?" sympathizingly said the young man. "Well, I'll tell you, sir. You see, I had some fine oats at the fair and the jockeys took 'em for horse-feed; the old woman had a fancy bed-quilt there, but the rascals used it for a horse-blanket; Sal had some canned fruit there and the judges ate it up for dessert one day. I kicked up a row and the managers said they would give me a diploma; so that's what I am waiting for."—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

The curtain for the new Casino in New York, is a unique affair. It is composed of plush of dark tints, draped gracefully. In the centre, on panels of dark satin, Moorish figures are embroidered in gold. Peeping through the drapery at short intervals are massive imitation diamonds and other brilliant stones, which will sparkle in the gaslight. The proscenium arch will be the tint of steel, so as to show the curtain in bold relief.

Royal O. Storrs & Co., woolen manufacturers, of Dedham, have failed, with assets of $230,000 and liabilities of about double that sum. Mr. William S. Slater, of Webster, Mass., is reported as endorser to the amount of $287,000. Mr. Slater, who was popularly supposed to be worth half a million, is said to be possessed of property valued at $45,000.

A dinner was given Mr. Pender in New York Tuesday night by Hon. Wm. M. Evans, at which Messrs. Cyrus W. Field, Hamilton Fish, Gen. Bristow, Carl Schurz, Whitelaw Reid and other prominent men were present. It is expected that in the near future arrangements will be concluded by Mr. Pender to list the Western Union stock in London.

The contract for building a steam yacht for Jay Gould has been awarded to Cramp & Sons, of Philadelphia. It will be constructed of iron and steel, and have steel boilers. It will be 210 feet long, 27 feet beam and 16 feet deep, and will have 1500 indicated horse power. The vessel will be ready for sea early in the spring.

In Des Moines, Ia., people have to be very careful what they say in the presence of a policeman. Four officers recently arrested an inoffensive citizen who casually remarked that the stream of water being thrown upon a burning building seemed to be "altogether inadequate."

A Louisville lady seeing another inside a Mother Hubbard's bonnet became exceedingly frightened, thinking she was in the presence of a lunatic. When she learned that the bonnet was fashionable she immediately ordered one.

Speaker Keifer not only lost his own town and county, but will have less than 300 majority in Clarke county, which gave Foster over 900 majority last year.

Hon. Lyman W. Coo of Torrington, Conn., has been nominated by the Republican Congressional Convention for the Fourth district.

The Prohibitionists of the Fourth Massachusetts district have nominated Wendell Phillips for Congress.

President Arthur, accompanied by his private secretary, Phillips, arrived in Washington Thursday night.

Col. Henry J. Hunt, by the statement of Gen. McDowell, will be promoted to brigadier general.

Armed to the Teeth: A very common expression, but we think that almost to everybody's knowledge, a type of age is decidedly more appropriate. This can be done by keeping yourself supplied with a bottle of that splendid dentifrice, FRAGRANT SOZODONT, which will beautify the teeth and preserve them from the ravages of decay. SOZODONT contains no acids or gritty substances which injure the enamel, but is composed of rare and antiseptic herbs, which have a beneficial effect on the whole economy of the mouth. Sold by druggists.

The claim of the New Jersey Central Railroad, for laying a track to the White House and transporting the President to Long Branch, has been filed with Comptroller Lawrence. It amounts to about $3000.

REWARD TO ENTERPRISE. Your own sagacity and good sense, New York, first introduced the celebrated course to the public, and now the name of "Pentina" is everywhere a household word, and millions upon millions of packages are annually consumed by our intelligent housekeeper.

It is rumored that a new Congressional paper is to be started in Boston, with Joseph Cook as editor.

Mothers should know it. Frequent babies should not disturb every body, and mothers should know how soothing Parker's Ginger Tonic is. It stops babies' crying, makes them healthy, relieves their own anxiety and is safe to use.—Journal.

Rev. Thomas Ghard, the eloquent pulpit orator and pastor of Mount Vernon Place M. E. Church, in Baltimore, died Sunday. He was for five years a pastor of churches in San Francisco and Oakland, California, and was a native of Ireland.

Heartily Recommended. Don't condemn a good thing because you have been deceived by worthless nostrums. Parker's Ginger Tonic has cured many in this section of nervous disorders, and we recommend it heartily to such sufferers.—News.

One hundred thousand dollars in Confederate bonds recently sold at Atlanta for six hundred and fifty dollars. That is about their original value.

BIG RESULTS FROM LITTLE CAUSES. "Do you know?" remarked a man to his friend on Chestnut Street, a day or two since. "I believe both Conkling and Platt had a bad case of skin disease when they resigned." "What makes you think so?" inquired the listener in astonishment. "Well, you see they acted in such an eruptive manner—so rashly as it were. Saye?" "Oh! yes, I saw," replied the other, "they were hot—big over and more—ly resigned to honor themselves, I suppose." "It is the case, the National difficulty might have been averted by applying Swaine's Ointment for skin diseases.

Scroville is "dead broke." The Guiltless case did not bring the shekels many lawyers supposed it would.

$1000 per year can be easily made at home working for E. G. Riddout & Co., 10 Broadway street, New York. Send for their catalogue and full particulars.

A recently suspended foreign minister, while passing through London on his way to this country, registered himself at Bowles' American agency as "Col. —, American Minister, in request for home."

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN are made pallid and unattractive by functional irregularities, which Dr. Pierce's "Favorable Prescription" will infallibly cure. Thousands of testimonials. Buy druggists.

Is there no lot-up to this thing? The Japanese girls are writing essays on "Woman's Sphere," just the same as our light-haired, thin-voiced American girls are.

Fever and ague and chills and fever broken up and proved by using the purely vegetable remedy, Carter's Liver Bitters. An antidote to all malarial poison. Sold by J. E. Thorpe.

The claims for indemnity for losses by the bombardment and pillage of Alexandria amount to £6,000,000. There are 3,000 claimants.

Gray hairs often cause annoyance, which Parker's Hair Balsam prevents by restoring the youthful color.

Mr. Knight, the new lord mayor of London, began business life as a warehouse porter in the city of which he is now chief magistrate.

If you are nervous or dyspeptic try Carter's Little Liver Pills. Dyspepsia makes you nervous, and nervousness makes you dyspeptic; either one renders you miserable and these little pills cure both. Sold by J. E. Thorpe.

Baron Nomenekj is getting ready for another Arctic expedition, which is to set out from Stockholm next summer under the patronage of Wilhelm Schonenck, a Berlin merchant.

Those who prepare Hops and Malt Bitters, make no secret of its ingredients, but publish them in an ever-ready list. They say that these remedies are all that is claimed for them for the cure of Dyspepsia, Debility, Indigestion, Constipation, etc.

Hop thieves in Minden, Neb., killed the sheriff and two citizens, Monday, rather than be taken into custody.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are free from all crude and irritating matter. Concentrated medicine only; very small; very easy to take; no pain; no griping; no purging. Sold by J. E. Thorpe.

Secretary Folger calls in fifteen millions more of the outstanding five per cent bonds.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

From all Parts of the World.

Death of a Prominent New Yorker.
Edward Clark, President of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, died on Saturday at his home in Cooperstown, N. Y., in the seventy-first year of his age. For many years he was in active practice in New York as a lawyer. He presented a valuable cabinet of minerals to Williams College, from which he was graduated, and built Clark Hall in Williamstown.

The German steamer Frankfort was burned Saturday, at Bremerhaven.—City Marshal Knapp, of Albany, Ind., was shot dead by a rowdy he was taking to the lock-up Sunday.—The New York Enamelled Furniture Company failed Saturday, with liabilities at $250,000, and assets $200,000.—Captain Webb at midnight Saturday left his tank at Horticultural Hall, Boston, having been in the water 1283 hours.—Orin A. Hickok drove Frank Work's fast team, Edward and Dickey Switzer, one mile on Saturday, in 2:18. The track was heavy and the driver and wagon were overweight.—A druggist of Des Moines, Ia., named Harmon, returned home from the east with a bride, and met on the street Miss Hattie Myers, who shot him fatally. Miss Myers had been filled by him.

Happenings Here and There.

The supreme court at Yankton, Dak., has denied the appeal for a new trial in the case of Crow Dog, the murderer of Spotted Tail, and confirmed the sentence of hanging.—The burning of Hurd's elevator in Bridgeport, Conn., caused a loss of $135,000. A $100,000 blaze has occurred in Tirrell, Tex.—Charles O. Kuston, an insurance swindler, who has victimized nearly every insurance company in Iowa, has been sentenced to the Anamosa penitentiary for 10 years.—The British ship Brauen has been wrecked on the Færø Islands; 14 of the crew perished.—The Berlin correspondent of the London Times telegraphs that Herr Von Brandebach, the present German minister to Japan, will be appointed minister to the United States.

The Revolt of the Kurds.

Skeikh Obaidullah has issued a manifesto to the Kurds, urging them to shake off the tyranny of Persia. He is at Sokli with a force of 17,000 men.

The Country's Big Crops.

The Department of Agriculture estimates the oat crop at 480,000,000 bushels; the rye crop at 20,000,000 bushels; the barley crop at 45,000,000 bushels. There is a good prospect for buckwheat; and a good yield of about 100,000,000 bushels of potatoes is anticipated.

An Ocean Disaster.

The steamers City of Antwerp and the Constantia, of the New Orleans line, collided near the Eddystone light house, Tuesday. Both vessels foundered. The crews were saved.

The Fenian Skirmishing Fund.

At a recent meeting of the Fenian skirmishing fund investigating committee, a letter was read from Mr. Augustus Ford, one of the trustees of the fund, stating that he had written to Messrs. Breslin and Hevo, two others of the trustees, on the sixth inst., asking for a statement of the outlays of money of the fund, and on the day after he received a letter from them declining to give the desired information. Questions as to the $12,000 loaned to James J. O'Kelly to insure his election to Parliament from county Roscommon, and $2000 to Murdoch, the editor of the Highlander, brought forth a resolution, which was adopted, accepting Mr. Ford's statement as satisfactory and holding him honorably released from all blame in the transaction of the $12,000 loan. A resolution also condemned in the strongest manner such perversion of the skirmishing fund and the conduct of the trustees in thus tampering with the people's trust.

Another Sound Steamer Ashore.

The steamer City of Worcester, of the Norwich line, ran on the rocks opposite Hunter's Point near New York Tuesday afternoon during a dense fog, and stove a hole in her side just under the bow. The passengers—100 in number—were transferred to other boats and returned to New York. The steamer was towed to New York. She is a new boat and was built in 1881 at a cost of $500,000.

Arabi's so-called Trial.

Sir Edward Malet, the British representative in Egypt, is determined that Arabi Pasha shall be defended by English counsel. If the Egyptians finally refuse this, the trial of the case will be taken out of their hands.

The Irish National Conference.

The Irish National conference is in session at Dublin, with Mr. Parnell as presiding officer. Mr. Egan has sent in his resignation as treasurer of the land league. He also gives a statement of the funds of the league. There is a large attendance at the conference, and Mr. Parnell and Michael Davitt are received with great enthusiasm.

$100 REWARD!

for the man that can ask for any popular shape, color, or price in fall hats, that I have not got already in stock for my autumn trade. In selecting my new hats I have taken pains to purchase for different heads to fit, large shapes in small sizes, and large sizes in small shapes, to enable every one to wear a hat adapted to their size. Perhaps it would be well to state here, that I have sold the past summer and spring more than three times the quantity of hats that I did during the spring and summer of 1881; and why? I will tell you: In the first place I buy my hats for cash. In the second place I sell my hats for cash, which latter fact disposes with the services of an extra bookkeeper. In the third place I sell of any dealer in Newport, which entitles me to lower purchase prices on large quantities. In the fourth place, my expenses are less than any competitor in Newport. In the fifth place I have no accounts running open of ten or twenty years of age for which I have to charge interest on the price of hats. In the sixth place, I guarantee every hat I sell (at any price), and take it back and exchange if unsatisfactory, every time. This is no idle talk; these are

Double the Number of Hats

Stubborn Facts,

and as each I defy any one to offer as good inducements to sell hats as I can. It is not friendship that sells hats now-a-days, it is the man that sells the best hat for the least money that does the business. I have all heights of crown and shapes of brim, in black, blue, brown wine and plum colors. Hats for 50, 60 and 75c, $1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $2.75, $3.00, $3.25, $3.50, $3.75 and $4.00 in stiff and soft. To be sure you can buy hats anywhere at those prices, but if you will take pains to examine hats in other stores, learn the price, examine carefully the and general finish of the hat, and then come and inspect my goods, you will satisfy yourself that you can always save 25 cents, and in finer goods oftener 50 cents in the price of one hat.
